

Joshua (Hebrew equivalent of the name 'Jesus' in the New Testament) was Moses' successor who led the Israelites into Canaan, the land promised to them by God, after 40 years of wandering in the desert. Once there, they battle and achieve victory over the native morally corrupt Canaanites; divide up the land as an inheritance for the 12 tribes (details not in this plan); and receive the final words spoken by Joshua before his death.

The secret of Joshua's success was his determination to Seek God before taking any action, which is reflected in our final five Scriptures for this month.
