COASTLANDS BIBLE READING & PRAYER PLAN: NOVEMBER 2026

In many Christmas Carol Services Micah 5:2 is still read. 700 years before Jesus was born the prophet Micah was reassuring Israel that even though disaster had come, God would send a Saviour.

Micah (a contemporary of Isaiah) was prophesying at a time when Israel was divided into two: the North (10 tribes known as Israel) and the South (2 tribes known as Judah). This division followed the civil war that had broken out after the death of Solomon. Micah prophesied during the reign of 3 Judean kings: Jotham (a good king), Ahaz (a bad King) and Hezekiah (very good).
We read their accounts in 2 Kings 15-19.

We then read in Micah chapters 1-3 that God is going to punish bad things. Chapters 4-5 have a focus on peace and security and Chapters 6-7 show the 2 sides of God's character which are justice and mercy. We see that even when God judges sin, he is working for our salvation.
